Chapter 3. I am working.

Conversation

Pop: What are you doing?
Hiromi: I am calling.
Pop: What are you doing?
Hiromi: I am working.
Pop: What are you doing?
Hiromi: I am taking a rest.
Pop:What are you doing?
Hiromi:What are you doing, then?
Pop: I am talking with you, Hiromi. Haha~

Pattern

◦ ~해요.

This is the expression for describing the movement of a subject.
You should attach '~아요, ~어요, ~여요' in front of '다' of the verbs such as '놀다, 쉬다, 전화하다'

Note) When the vowel of the syllable in front of '다' is 'ㅏ' (except '하')or 'ㅗ', '~아요' will be used for the sentence;
when the other vowels are used in the syllable in front of '다', '~어요' will be used for the sentence;
when the syllable in front of '다' is '하', '~여요' will be used for the sentence (하여요>해요)

Grammar

◦ ~아요/어요

Used after verbs for description, narration, and questions

Vocabulary

전화하다 to call, 일하다 to work, 쉬다 to take a rest, 이야기하다 to tell, 놀다 to play
