Course TITLE: Filipino Culture and Society
Instructor: Carljohnson Anacin
Title/Position : Research and Extension Director
Institution : Panpacific University

Course Overview:

This course introduces the students to the culture, life, and society of the Philippines and its people. In here, you will learn about the Philippines, its history, language, customs and values, festivals, cuisines, traditional games, arts, music and dances. This course will give you a basic background and understanding of the colorful and fun life of the Filipinos. This does not only present the class a textbook information on the facts and figures about the Philippines, but it will serve as a practical guide for foreigners wanting to be immersed in Filipino society and experience the culture of the Philippines, especially when visiting the country. This course will show the world that 'it's more fun in the Philippines!'

Grading:

Assessment	Mark
Essays and quizzes	20%
Group presentations	10%
Individual demonstrations	10%
Test 1	30%
Final group presentation	30%
TOTAL	100%