

The 1st India · South Asia Graduate/Undergraduate Thesis Competition

The Institute of Indian Studies (IIS), Hankuk University of Foreign Studies (HUFS), organizes a thesis competition about India and South Asia for undergraduate and graduate students. The competition aims to enhance interest to further promote academic development and discover creative and innovative students who can make contributions in the field of India and South Asian Studies.

Eligibility

- Undergraduate and Graduate (Masters, PhD) students in Korea or abroad, who are currently enrolled (or on leave) in a University.
- Co-applicants must be eligible for application.

Thesis topic and page limit

- Choose one of the following topics
  - Great Transition in India
  - Unification of Thoughts
  - Pan-Indianization of Hindi
  - Hinduization of History
  - Uniformity of Cultural Diversity
  - Strong India, Growth-oriented India
- Page limit: not exceeding 20 (A4 size) pages (including abstract, main body, reference)

Timeline

- Application period: 15. 07. 2019 (Mon.) – 31. 07. 2019 (Weds.)
- Announcement of winner: August 2019 (individual notification to winners and on Institute of Indian Studies' website)

Documents for submission

- Application form, Enrollment (or leave) certificate, Thesis
- ※ Please refer to Institute of Indian Studies' website (www.southasia.or.kr) for writing guidelines, document format, etc.

Awards

Grand award (1 paper)	3 million won with Certificate
Excellence award (2 papers)	1 million won with Certificate
Commendation award (3 papers)	500 thousand won with Certificate

- ※ Public charge and tax will be deducted.

Submission and Enquiry

Enquiry: 02-2173-8703 (in charge, thesis competition)
Mail submission: devamitta@hanmail.net